The Recovery Version—A Unique Study Bible

The word Bible comes from the Greek word biblos, which means "the book." This means that the Bible stands as the unique book among all the books in the world. Although it was written by men in human language, it is unique because its nature is divine. The apostle Paul's word to Timothy tells us that "all Scripture is God-breathed" (2 Tim. 3:16). This indicates that the Scriptures did not come out of man's thought, man's mind; rather, God breathed His thought and His word through His Spirit into and out of the writers. Thus, the Bible contains God's elements and carries His flavour. The greatest blessing and joy in human life is to contact God and taste Him through the words of the Bible (Psa. 119:103).

As the unique book, the Bible is a book of divine truth. The truths contained in the Bible concern God and His eternal plan, man and his destiny, Christ with His person and work, the Holy Spirit in man's experience of God, the complete salvation of God for man, the church as God's corporate people, the kingdom of God, and the New Jerusalem in the new heaven and new earth.

According to the facts of history, after the writing of the Bible was completed, over the succeeding centuries the truths in the Bible gradually became lost or misunderstood. For many years the Bible was even locked away so that the common people could not read it. In the sixteenth century, at the time of the Reformation, God began to recover the lost truths of the Bible. In the following centuries, God used a number of His servants to progressively recover the truths in His Word. Those used by God in each generation inherited the truths recovered by their predecessors and went further to receive more light from God through His Word. Eventually, at the end of the twentieth century the recovery of the biblical truths was essentially complete.

The greatest blessing and joy in human life is to contact God and taste Him through the words of the Bible.

The Recovery Version is unique among all of the study Bibles available today. More than being an accurate and readable translation of the biblical text, the Recovery Version contains additional elements that convey the full breadth of the divine truths breathed out by God through the original writers of the Bible and recovered by God's people over the past five hundred years. The outlines, footnotes, and cross-references in the Recovery Version unveil the divine revelation in the Scriptures and guide the reader into a discovery of the rich treasures hidden below the surface of the printed pages. Now, in the twenty-first century, the Recovery Version stands out as the Bible for our generation.

The Recovery Version is also unique because it relates all the divine truths in the Bible to one crucial matter—the economy of God. The Bible uses the word economy to describe God's great enterprise in the universe, which is to dispense Himself into man so that He and man may be one (Eph. 1:10; 3:9; 1 Tim. 1:4). God can be likened to a wealthy businessman who has an enormous amount of capital. God has a "business" in this universe, and His vast wealth is simply Himself. Because God has the desire to distribute Himself with all His riches into man.

The outlines, footnotes, and cross-references in the Recovery Version unveil the divine revelation in the Scriptures.

He has a plan, a divine arrangement, a divine economy. This economy is the central theme of the Bible. The truths of the Bible are like the pieces of a jigsaw puzzle. In order to interlock the scattered pieces of a puzzle correctly, we need to be guided by the picture on the box. Likewise, in order to understand the various truths in the Bible in their proper context, we need to look at the "picture on the box" of the Bible, that is, at the central theme of the Bible unfolded from Genesis to Revelation. Everything God did in the past, is doing in the present, and will do in the future is for the accomplishing of His economy. The revelation of God's economy puts all the biblical truths into their proper perspective. The unveiling of the truth in the Bible from the perspective of God's economy is the foundation of all Christian experience.

It is God's desire that all men come to the full knowledge of the truth according to His divine economy (1 Tim. 2:4). We sincerely hope that all God's seekers will benefit from the unveiled truth in the Recovery Version and, even more, that the truth will become their experience as their personal reality.

The remainder of this booklet contains three sections to show you the features of the Recovery Version and how they can be used.

First, we have included an illustrated guide to introduce you to the main FEATURES OF THE RECOVERY VERSION and to give you an idea of how to use them in your study of the Bible. The better you can use the features of the Recovery Version, the more you will be able to receive new light and be inwardly supplied by God's Word.

Second, because one of the best ways to study the Bible is by topic, we have included a TOPICAL DIRECTORY, a concise presentation of the major topics in the New Testament. As we have seen, the central theme of the Bible is God's eternal plan and His economy to carry it out by dispensing Himself into man. All fifteen subjects in the Topical Directory were purposely selected because of their direct relationship to this central theme. The fifteen topics are: The Word of God, God, The Economy of God, Christ, The Spirit, Eternal Life, Divine Truth—Reality, Man, The Gospel, Salvation, Christian Experience, The Believers, The Church—the Body of Christ, The Kingdom, and The New Jerusalem.

If you study all these topics with a prayerful spirit and an open heart, your understanding of the Bible will be increased and your spiritual experience will be enriched.

Third, a brief SAMPLE STUDY USING THE TOPICAL DIRECTORY is illustrated on pages 12-13.

May God bless you richly through His Word!

A. His Genealogy and Office—Called Christ

I The book of the ageneration of Jesus 2bChri.

• 11 The first name and the last name (Rev. 22:21) in the New Testament is Jesus, proving that Jesus Christ is the subject and content of the New Testament.

The Bible is a book of life, and this life is a living person, the wonderful and all-inclusive Christ. The Old Testament gives a portrait, in types and prophecies, of this wonderful person as the Coming One. Now, in the New Testament, this wonderful person has come. The first page of the New Testament, in recommending this wonderful person to us, gives us His genealogy. This genealogy can be considered an abstract of the Old Testament, which in itself is the detailed genealogy of Christ. To understand the genealogy in Matthew, we need to trace the origin and history of every incident.

Christ, as the wonderful center of the entire Bible, is all-inclusive, having many aspects. The New Testament at its beginning presents four biographies to portray the four main aspects of this all-inclusive Christ. The Gospel of Matthew testifies that He is the King, the Christ of God prophesied in the Old Testament, who brings the kingdom of the heavens to the earth. The Gospel of Mark tells us that He is the Servant of God, laboring for God faithfully. Mark's account is most simple, for a servant does not warrant

11 As the last book of the Bible, Revelation is the conclusion, completion, and consummation of the entire divine revelation, the whole Bible. The seeds of most of the truths of the divine revelation were sown in Genesis, the first book of the Bible. The growth of all these seeds is progressively developed in the succeeding books, especially in the books of the New Testament, and the harvest is reaped in the book of Revelation. Hence, most of the things covered in this book are not absolutely new but are in the preceding books and are perfected in this book, the focus of which is the unique, ultimate revelation of Christ, the particular, consuming

The whole Bible reveals Christ; the book of Revelation especially, as the conclusion, completion, and consummation of the whole Bible, is "the revelation of Jesus Christ." Although this book also reveals many other things, the focus of its revelation is Christ. Using the Topical Directory

- Verses with footnotes that give a good overview of a topic are highlighted.
- Study units may be completed by yourself and/or with others.
- Set aside regular time to prayerfully read and study the Bible.
- A referenced footnote may not be entirely on the study topic; find the part of the footnote that is related to the topic.
- · Read consecutively through the verses and footnotes in a study unit.
- Be sure to utilize the cross-references and outlines as well as the footnotes.
- After completing a study unit:
 - Try to put into your own words the new light you received.
 - Memorize a key verse or phrase.
 - Speak prayerfully with the Lord about what He has shown you in His Word and ask Him to make it your experience.

Believing into Christ

Below is a sample of how you can use the Topical Directory to get the most benefit from the features of the Recovery Version. Let's use a couple of well-known verses, John 1:12 and John 3:16, under the topic Christian Experience, subtopic Believing into Christ on page 10.

- 1 Pray to prepare yourself to receive the Word.
- Read John 1:12.

John 1:12

12 But as many as ^{1a}received Him, to them He gave the authority to become ²children of God, to those who ¹believe into His name.

After reading this verse, look at footnote 12¹ to help you understand the relationship between the words "received" and "believe into."

Footnote 121

12¹ To believe into is to receive.

Next, look up Colossians 2:6 from cross-reference 12^a on John 1:12.

Colossians 2:6

6 As therefore you have ^{1a}received the Christ, Jesus the Lord, ^{2b}walk in Him.

6 Read the corresponding footnote 6¹ on Colossians 2:6.

Footnote 61

6¹ Christ is the allotted portion of the saints (1:12) for their enjoyment. To believe into Him is to receive Him. As the all-inclusive Spirit (2 Cor. 3:17), He enters into us and dwells in our spirit (2 Tim. 4:22) to be everything to us.

6 Now, let's look at John 3:16, the next verse in our subtopic.

John 3:16

16 For God so aloved the 1world that He bgave His conly begotten Son, that everyone who 2d believes into Him would not perish, but would have eternal life.

7 Then read footnote 16² to see more clearly what it is to believe into Christ.

Footnote 16²

16² Believing into the Lord is not the same as believing Him (6:30). To believe Him is to believe that He is true and real, but to believe into Him is to receive Him and be united with Him as one. The former is to acknowledge a fact objectively; the latter is to receive a life subjectively.

(3) Finally, cross-reference 16^d directs you to two other verses in John which speak of believing into Christ.

John 3:36

36 He who abelieves into the Son has eternal life; but he who disobeys the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides upon him.

John 6:40

40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one who beholds the Son and believes into Him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day.

After studying this topic in God's Word, it is clear that to believe into Christ is to receive Him. The result of believing is that we receive eternal life, the life of God, and become children of God who are born of Him. If you have not already done so, we urge you to make this truth your personal reality by praying this simple prayer:

"Lord Jesus, I confess that I am a sinner. I need You. I believe into You. Take away all my sins. I receive You as my life. I open my heart to You. Lord Jesus come into me. Make me a child of God. Thank You, Lord Jesus. Amen."

Having received Christ by believing into Him, you now have the full assurance that you are a child of God.
